All About Me

A letter to my new teacher

Teacher note

Use this in the final week of term. Children complete the sheet, which is then passed to their incoming teacher (either physically or scanned). It's a powerful way to give the new teacher a head start in September — and gives children a sense of agency over the transition.

About me

- I like to be called: _____
- Something I'm proud of from last year: _____

What I love doing outside school

What helps me learn best

Examples: working with a partner, having a quiet space, being able to draw my ideas first, getting examples before I start.

Something I'd like my new teacher to know

Anything important — a worry, a goal, something about your family, an interest you'd love to do more of.
