

Canadian Food & Everyday Icons — Knowledge Organiser

Free from LessonKind · lessonkind.com · Qualified primary teacher

Key facts

- Canada has some famous foods and icons.
- Maple syrup, from maple trees, is a Canadian classic.
- Poutine — chips with cheese and gravy — comes from Quebec.
- The beaver and the maple leaf are well-known Canadian symbols.

Key vocabulary

- Icon — something widely recognised as typical.
- Maple syrup — sweet syrup from maple trees.
- Cuisine — the food of a place.
- Symbol — something standing for an idea.

Food brings people together

From maple syrup on pancakes to a bowl of poutine, Canadian food blends traditions from its many cultures.

A fun comparison

Comparing Canadian foods with those where you live is a fun way to explore culture.