What you (the non-specialist) need

■ Google Translate (free, has audio) for pronunciation when stuck

■ Speaker to play recorded audio (YouTube has Spanish children's songs — search 'canciones infantiles')

■ Coloured paper / card for flashcards as you go

■ Permission to be wrong — children find adult mispronunciations funny, and that's fine

■ Permission to skip weeks when timetable gets squeezed (this is normal)

■ A children's Spanish dictionary for emergencies
