

New Zealand on Screen — Knowledge Organiser

Free from LessonKind · lessonkind.com · Qualified primary teacher

Key facts

- New Zealand's dramatic scenery is world-famous.
- Mountains, forests and plains have been used as film settings.
- Filmmaking brings visitors and jobs.
- People travel from around the world to see the landscapes.

Key vocabulary

- Landscape — the look of an area of land.
- Setting — where a story takes place.
- Scenery — natural views.
- Tourism — visiting places for pleasure.

A natural film set

New Zealand's spectacular and varied landscapes have made it a popular setting for films.

Drawing visitors

Films set in New Zealand encourage people from around the world to come and see the real landscapes for themselves.