Book Review

Help others decide what to read

What a review should do

A review TELLS readers what the book is about (without spoilers!), HOW the writer wrote it, what was GREAT, what wasn't, and WHO would enjoy it. The trick is to give your honest opinion AND back it up — 'I liked it because...' is way better than 'I liked it'.

The book

Title _____

Author _____

Genre _____

Number of pages _____

Summary (no spoilers!)

Tell us about the main character and the problem they face — but don't reveal the ending.

Favorite character

Who and why?

Favorite part

Pick ONE moment. Don't give away what happens — just say what you loved about it.

What didn't work

Be honest. Was something boring? Confusing? Unrealistic?

Who would enjoy this?

What kind of reader? Younger / older / who likes mystery / who likes humor?
